Rubric for oral presentations of application projects
(to be used and considered while the group is doing their oral presentation)

Criteria	Proficient	Apprentice	Novice
Content (3)	Good material that clearly related ideas; supports and explores the project development and conclusions.	Sufficient material; some good points, but not entirely balanced. Some ideas which are not clearly explored.	Ideas are not clear; do not provide support or do not seem to be connected.
Group presentation (2)	All group members participate equally, help each other as needed, and speak clearly.	Some group members participate, or some of them are difficult to understand	Only 1 group member participate or they are hard to understand. It can be clearly inferred that the group has not prepared or organised the presentation beforehand.
Delivery (3)	Quick recovery from minor mistakes. Appropriately dressed (casual wear). Builds trust and holds attention. Fairly consistent use of direct eye contact with the entire audience. Enthusiasm and confidence. They seem to have rehearsed and coordinated the presentation beforehand.	Some tension or apparent indifference, and possible inappropriate dress for purpose or audience. Occasional but unsustained eye contact with the audience. Uneven volume with little or no inflection.	Nervous tension obvious and/or inappropriately dressed for purpose or audience (too casual). No effort to make eye contact with the audience or looking constantly to the projector or computer. Low volume and/or monotonous tone cause audience to disengage. They are unprepared or have not practised previously.
Length of Presentation (2)	Within +/- 2 minutes of allotted time	Within +/- 6 minutes of allotted time	Far too long or too short
